PAST

- Early Period (1400-1600)
 - Slavery and ownership
 - Movements
- More recent (1900-2000)
 - Fake Passports
 - Acts that were passed

Children more likely to be trafficked:

- addicted to drugs and alcohol
- abusive families
- sexually abused

Human Trafficking Commission

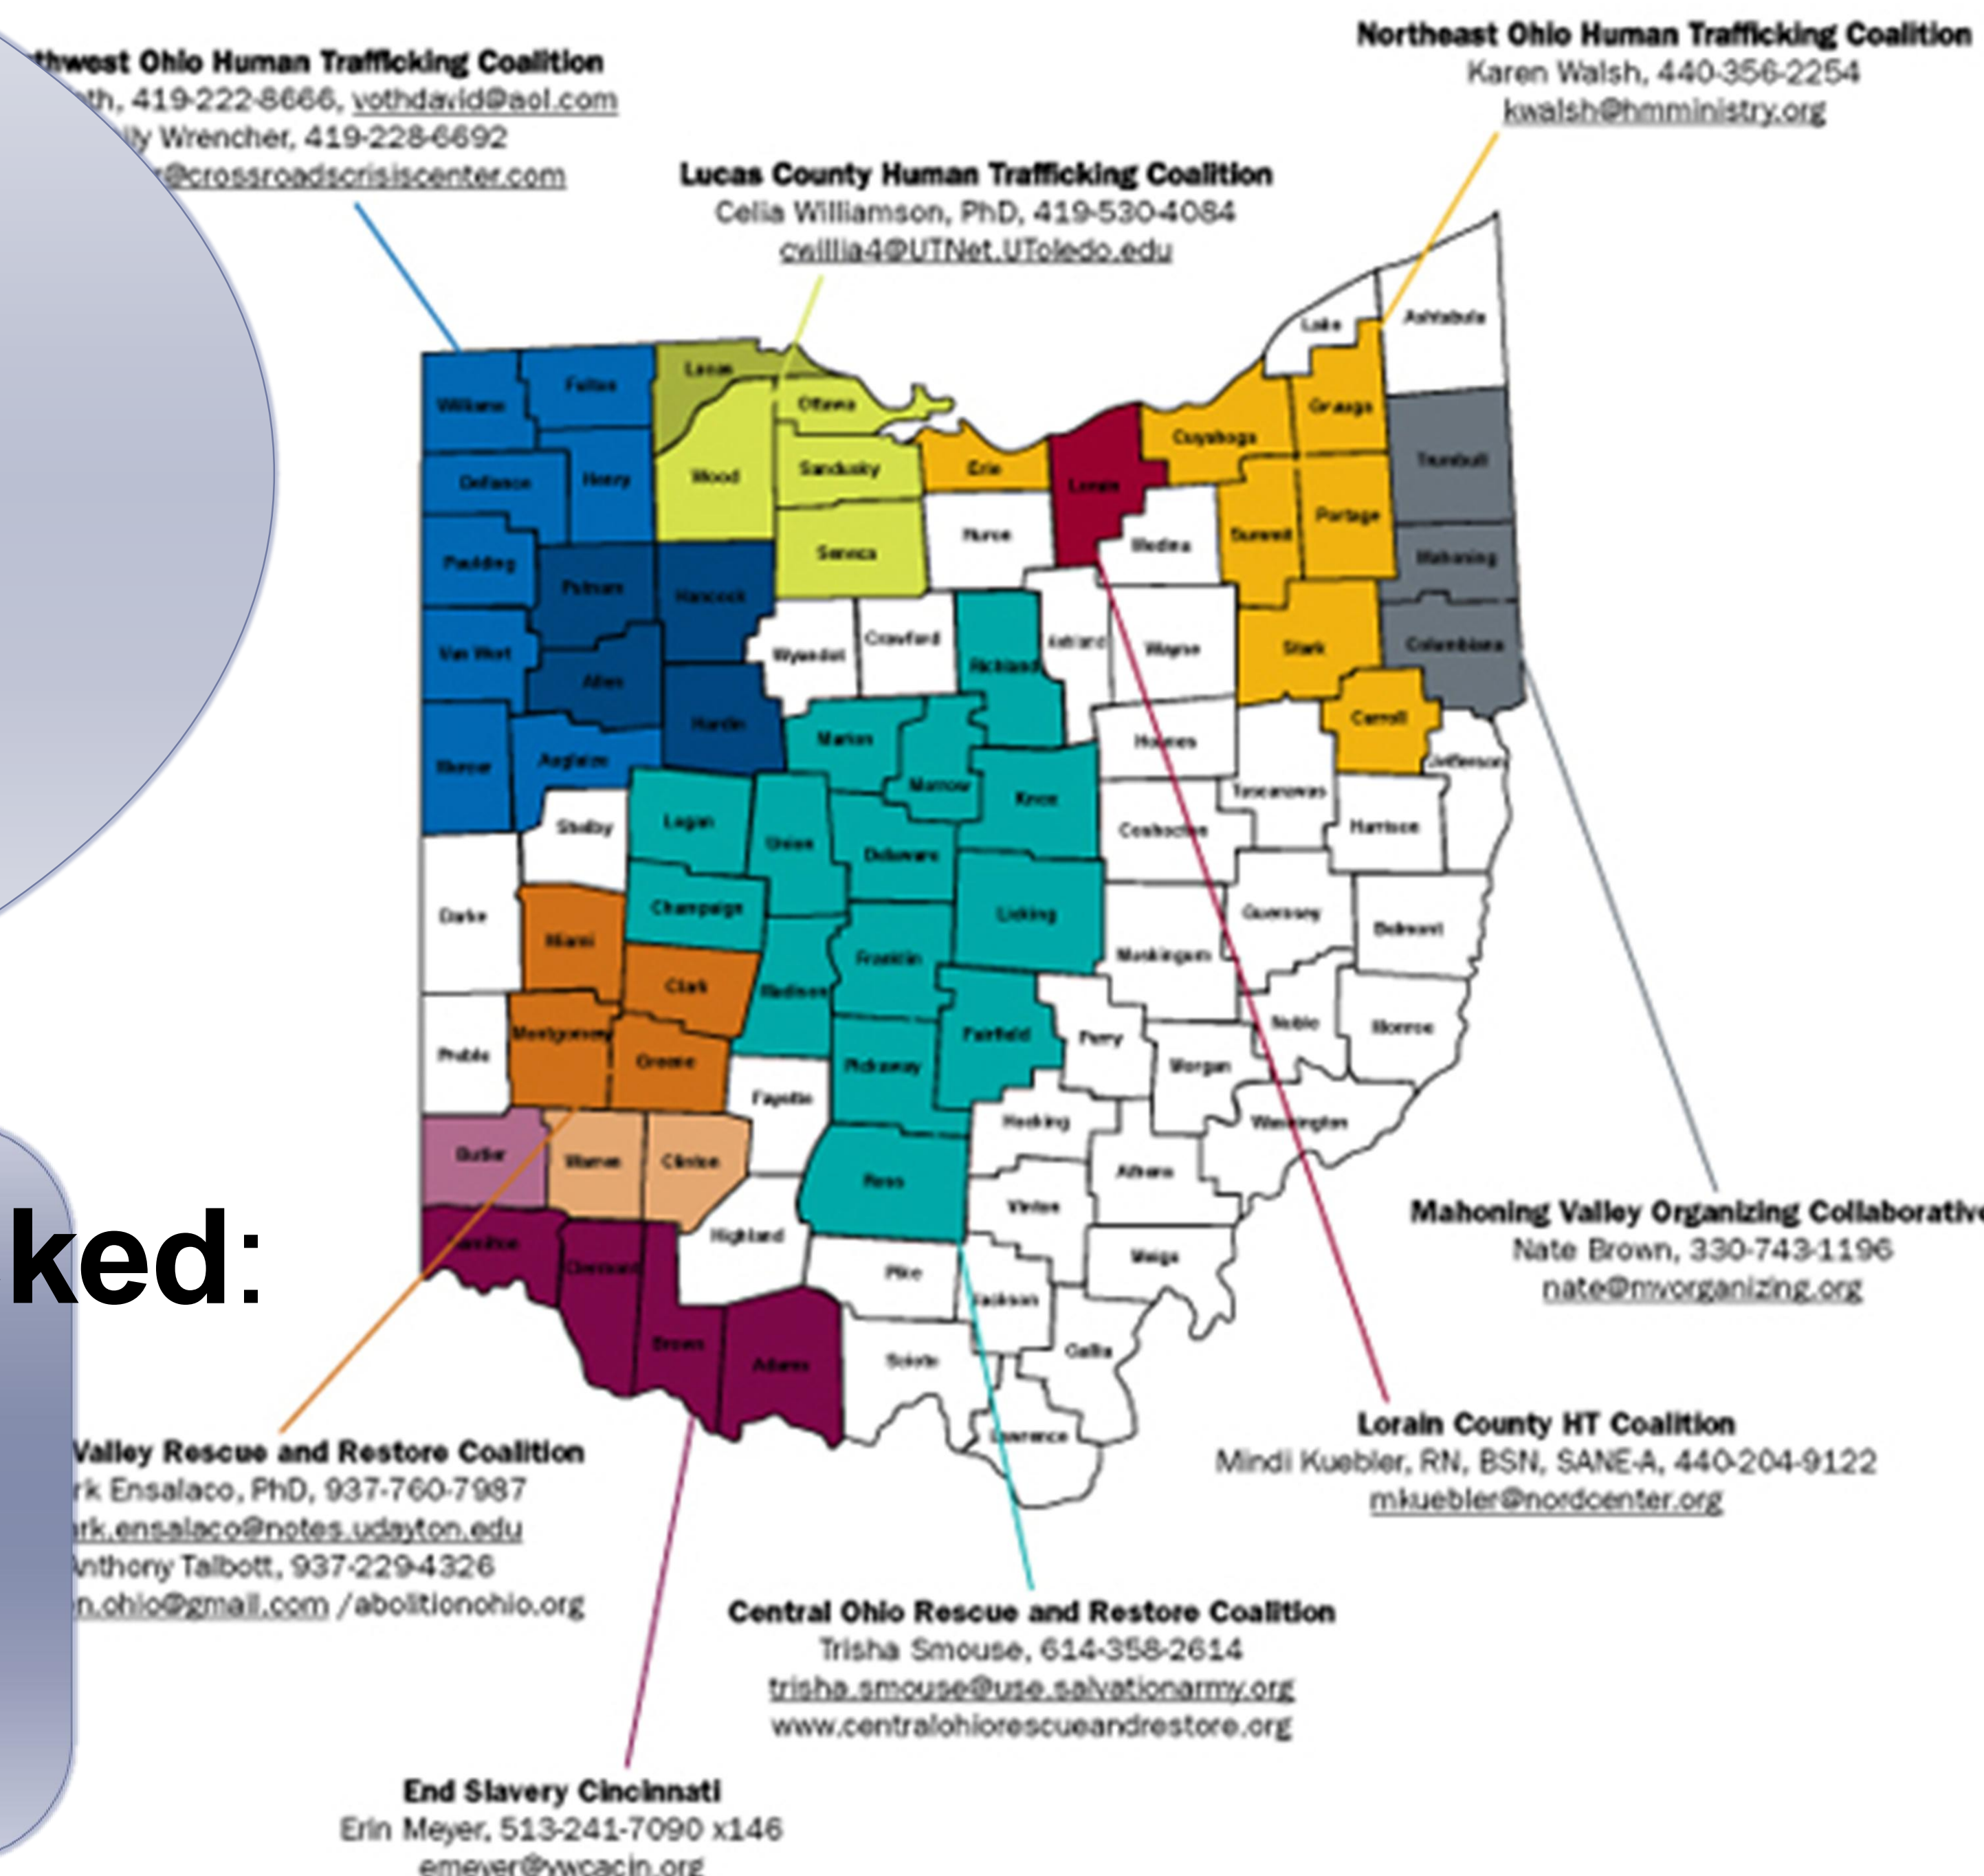

Meet regularly to understand the extent of the problem in Ohio, find ways to help victims, and discover how to investigate and prosecute traffickers

House Bill 262 (Safe Harbor Law)

Goal is to increase the penalties for traffickers and improve care for victims

Service Areas of Ohio Human Trafficking Coalitions

*The darker colors depict the areas currently served, while the lighter colors associated with the darker one illustrates target areas for that particular coalition.
